BOY'S DEATH TO BE PROBED

Grand Jury is Instructed by Judge Sparks Today to Investigate Demise of Charles Hall.

KILLED NEAR MILFORD JUNE 4

Court Also Tells Jurors They Should Make Inquiry Into Liquor Law Violations.

Investigation into the death of Charles Hall, the Milford high school boy, whose mangled remains were found along the Big Four railway track, two miles south of Milford on the morning of June 4, was started this morning by the grand jury.

Ever since the death of young Hall there has been rumors in and around Milford regarding foul play, many people believing that Hall was first murdered and the body placed on the track to cover up the crime. So persistent have these rumors been that Prosecutor Stevens decided to bring the matter before the grand jury in an effort to see if there was any truth in the statements.

Coroner Barnett, in filing his verdict, found that death was accidental and was caused by trespassing on the right-of-way of the Big Four railway. Hall was a boy well liked in Milford and many people there believe he had one enemy who was jealous over the fact that Hall was going with Miss Roxie Fishback, of Williamstown. Hall was returning home from the Fishback residence when death occurred.

In his charge to grand jury Judge Sparks called attention to the rather mysterious death of Charles Hall and asked the grand jury to take the case up and see if there were any grounds for the rumors of foul play. This is not all Judge Sparks told the jury. He stated that there was undoubtedly violations of the liquor laws here in Rushville and that gambling was going on. He urged the grand jury as a matter of duty to take up these things.

Judge Sparks told the grand jury that while he was accusing no one it seemed as though the city officials were not able to cope with the situation here in Rushville and urged the grand jury to make a cleaning of the "blind tigers" and gamblers.

This is the first session of the grand jury this term of court. One member of the original grand jury was excused. This was Greeley O. Ball, and the court appointed Lige Kirkpatrick to take his place. James Cassady is acting as grand jury bailiff. The first witnesses this morning were Mr. and Mrs. William Tully, living south of Milford, who found the body of Charles Hall along the railway tracks.

BOY DIES OF PNEUMONIA

Elmer M. Ratekin, Age Nine Years, Expires Following Long Illness

Elmer Martin Ratekin, nine years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Ratekin, died this morning at 2:30 o'clock at the home of his parents, corner of Spencer and Ninth streets, after an illness of several weeks from pneumonia and a complication of diseases. His death had been expected. He is survived by his parents and several brothers and sisters. The funeral services will be conducted Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the Richland M. E. church and burial will take place in the cemetery there.

A marriage license was issued this morning to David G. Whitton and Daisy M. Stevens.

STATE LIBRARIAN FRIENDS SAY HE IS A CANDIDATE

Following Editors' Outing, it is Stated James E. Watson Will be Urged to Seek Nomination.

FOR SENATOR FROM INDIANA

In Last Few Weeks, Talk is Growing and His Friends Are Doing Heroic Work For Him.

Writing from Indianapolis to the Huntington Herald, Ellis Searles, an Indianapolis newspaper man, says that the talk has been revived among James E. Watson's friends concerning him as a candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator. Even though Mr. Watson has repeated again and again he is not a candidate, the reports became insistent at the annual summer outing of the Indiana Editorial association last week. Mr. Searles says:

Friends of James E. Watson are diligently insisting that he is a candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator, although Watson himself has not made any announcement of his candidacy. Watson accompanied the Indiana Republican Editorial association on its outing trip to Louisville and Corydon last week, and was one of the biggest figures in the party. There were other prominent men on the trip, also, some of them being avowed aspirants for office while others have not yet made their announcements.

For example, William L. Taylor, of Indianapolis, former attorney general, was one of the party that went on the outing trip, and he is generally understood to be a candidate for senator, even though he has kept the fact to himself. But his very appearance on the excursion was taken by those present to mean that he is in the race. Then there was Hugh Miller, of Columbus who was the nominee for United States senator in 1914. He also was on the excursion and extended the glad hand to his many friends. They are claiming the nomination for senator for him as a right, because he was on the ticket in 1914 when there was not a ghost of a chance to win. They say this entitled him to another nomination at a time when there seems to be little doubt of success.

State Senator Arthur Robinson, of Indianapolis, is an out and out avowed candidate for senator, and he is making the welkin ring with his appeal for votes. He went on the excursion, too. Robinson has been picking up some support in various parts of the state, but whether he is hefty enough to put it over is still a question. He says he represents the element of the party that stands for a new deal, whatever that is.

If Watson makes an open announcement of his candidacy the race will be a badly mixed affair, with the chance favoring no particular candidate. Up to recently there was much doubt about Watson becoming a candidate. In fact, about all of the current talk was that he would not run. But in the last few weeks the Watson talk has been growing, and his close political friends are doing heroic work for him. It is a well known fact that Watson numbers among his supporters some of the ablest Republican political workers in the state, and if they turn loose for him they will be sure to do some heavy work.

Judge Walter Olds of Fort Wayne, is an uncertain element in the race for United States senator, because nobody has been able thus far to figure out what amount of support he will receive. On all sides it is acknowledged that he is a strong man and his friends declare that if the Republicans of the state could but know him they would nominate him.

HOLDS RECEIVER IS NOT NEEDED

Judge Sparks Dismisses Albert Stevens in Davis & Jones Case Today.

RECEIVERSHIP IS OPPOSED

Suit of John C. Rufus and Homer Folger Against Emerson Barnard Begins.

Judge Sparks this morning refused a receiver for the Davis & Jones millinery store in the suit brought by William E. Jones against Lelah Davis, Elizabeth Jones and Jefferson C. Davis. The case was heard on the petition for a receiver and the court found for the defendants.

The receivership was opposed by Jefferson C. Davis, who holds a mortgage on the millinery store. The court found that the mortgage was good and that there was no attempt at fraud. The complaint stated that the firm of Davis & Jones was indebted to him in the sum of $148 that he had advanced in payment for some merchandise.

Jefferson Davis has a suit pending against Davis & Jones to foreclose the mortgage he holds on the place and the business of the firm will more than likely be settled when this case is heard. Albert C. Stevens was appointed temporary receiver for the store, but his duties ended with the decision today. Chauncey Duncan represented the plaintiff and John Titsworth appeared for Jefferson Davis.

Riley Stewart, by paying $51 cash and an additional $109, will be relieved from further payments towards the support of his divorced wife, Minnie Stewart. This was the decision made today when an agreement was entered and the court found for him. The petition was to modify a decree and under the terms of the agreement Stewart admitted that he had failed to pay his wife $51, since filing the petition. The paying of the additional $109 relieves him from further payments.

While Judge Sparks was conducting court in the juvenile room Judge Fred C. Gause of Newcastle was hearing the case of John C. Folger, Rufus Folger and Homer Folger against Emerson Barnard, to quiet title, in the large court room. This case will occupy several days as there is a list of probably forty witnesses to testify. The suit involved 80 acres of land in Posey township. John A. Titsworth and A. L. Gary appear for the plaintiffs and Mege & Ross represent the defendant.

CARNIVAL AGAIN THIS YEAR

Young Men of Catholic Church Announce Dates For Event.

It was announced today that the Catholic carnival will be held again this year. It is an annual event given by the young men of the Catholic church, to which many always look forward. The carnival will take place in the park at the corner of Fifth and Perkins streets, as usual, and the dates are July 20, 21, 22, 23 and 24. The attractions will include merry-go-round, country store, bowling alley, fancy booth, candy cream cone booth and others. The vaudeville stunts will be put on by local people and will be changed each evening. There will also be a band concert each evening.

A six-pound baby girl has been born to the wife of Knowles Casady in North Jackson street. The baby has been named Eileen.

MAKE PLANS FOR 2 NEW STREETS

Council Passes Resolution For Improvement of Two in Stewart & Tompkins Addition.

SIDEWALKS WILL BE BUILT

Fire Committee Reports That Tower Supporting Fire Bell is Not in Very Bad Condition.

Preliminary steps for extensive street improvement in the Stewart & Tompkins addition to Belmont were taken last night by the city council. A resolution was passed calling for the improvement of North Perkins street by constructing a water bound macadam highway from Eleventh street to the south side of the alley on the north side of the Stewart and Tompkins addition.

The residents in this section of the street petitioned the council last year for a concrete street and the council prepared plans for a macadam street. If the residents there still desire the street to be paved with concrete they will have to present a petition to the council asking for this.

In case the petition is presented, the council will have to grant it. It is understood that the people there are still in favor of a concrete street and it is more than likely that it will be paved with this.

July 6, or the first meeting in July, was set for the time for hearing remonstrances. At this time the petition calling for concrete will be presented.

In order that there will be no dead end to North Perkins street the council decided to improve Twelfth street from Main over to Perkins street. The engineer was instructed to draw up plans and specifications for the improvement of the street by constructing a roadway of macadam. This will give an outlet from North Perkins street over to Main street and should prove a great improvement as the street has never been built.

Two petitions asking for permission to construct cement sidewalks were granted by the council. The walks will be constructed privately, at no costs to the city, and under the provisions of the city ordinance. The first was granted to Jacob Kuntz in North Julian street. The other was given to Dr. D. D. Drago, who desires to build a walk in Eleventh street at the corner of Perkins.

The fire committee reported that after investigating they found that the bell tower supporting the fire bell was not in as bad a condition as they had been led to believe. It was stated that the tower needed a new foundation and that this could be put in for $75 or $100 and thus save the expense of buying a new tower.

The finance committee reported that the treasurer's report for the month of May had been found correct.

The clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for supplies at the water and light plant. The supplies include coal, electric lamps, oil and electric meters. The council will receive bids for a year's supply on these articles at a special meeting on Friday, July 16.

NOT PERMITTED HERE.
A lodge called the Fraternal Order of Oaks, which was to have been installed in this city soon will not get to, according to a letter received today from S. V. Blair, the local organizer, from the Auditor of State, Dale J. Crittenden. The letter stated that the order did not come under the Indiana State laws and was not an Indiana corporation. Rushville was the first city in Indiana where the organizer had attempted to institute the lodge.

CHICAGO STREET CAR STRIKE OFF

Full Service Resumed Today After Agreement on All But Two Points Which Will be Arbitrated

FOLLOWS ALL NIGHT CONFLAB

Each Motorman and Conductor Wears Small American Flag Pinned to Coat When Cars Start.

(By United Press.)
Chicago, June 16.—The great Chicago street car strike was called off at five o'clock this morning. Full service on all elevated lines was resumed at noon.

Agreement to end the most complete transportation tie-up the nation has ever known was reached following an all night conference with all sides represented at Mayor Thompson's office.

It was not until dawn was breaking that the opposing factions agreed to concede certain points and to arbitrate the others. There were two questions to be arbitrated. They are the length of time the men must work to receive a maximum wage and a wage scale.

Mayor Thompson was vested by both sides with full powers to umpire the points in dispute.

The men agreed to return to work at the old wage scale. Any change in wages that may be granted will date back to June 1. Partial resumption of service on the elevated roads went into effect shortly before eight o'clock this morning with the union crews in charge.

The rumble of surface cars and the roar of elevated trains that were running on full service schedule at noon today was the sweetest music leg weary Chicagoans have heard in two days that seemed that many years. The noon hour marked the end to the strike of 14,500 motormen and conductors which had set Chicago back fifty years in street transportation. Throughout the strike some cars were run over the elevated tracks but there were no passengers except guards and policeman. Last night some of the more courageous ventured to ride.

The first surface cars to pass through the loop were the signals for a demonstration from the thousands who passed on the sidewalk. Every motorman and conductor wore an American flag pinned to his coat and larger flags floated from the cars.

SAILS WITH SEALED ORDERS

Italian Fleet Leaves Harbor After Wonderful Demonstration.

(By United Press.)
Rome, June 16.—The Italian fleet sailed under sealed orders late last night from the seaport Paronto at the southeastern end of Italy.

Before the fleet steamed into the Adriatic, a remarkable religious service was held in the ancient cathedral Cataldo. The archbishop pronounced a patriotic service and called for a great naval victory for the king.

All afternoon great crowds streamed into the cathedral. Towards evening a great throng gathered along the harbor front to watch the fleet.

DELIVERY SYSTEM SOLD.

E. E. Benson has sold his delivery system to John Davis and the new owner will take charge July 1. There will be no changes in the system. Mr. Benson is undecided as to the future. Last Monday night Mr. Benson gave a banquet to the merchants in the system at the Windsor hotel.

ELI REDMAN IS REMOVED TODAY

State Supreme Court Rules on Impeachment Proceedings Filed by Attorney General.

Court Finds Law Unconstitutional Which Would Have Disfranchised Redman for Life.

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., June 16.—The state supreme court today ordered the removal of Eli Redman as judge of the Vigo county circuit court.

Since Redman, who is in Leavenworth prison with other Terre Haute politicians, has already been unseated by an unfavorable decision in an election contest brought by Charles Pulliam, chief interest in today's decision centered in its legal aspect. The court ruled the law unconstitutional which would have disfranchised Redman and made him ineligible to hold office in the future. Today's decision was made on impeachment proceedings brought by the attorney general.

Eli Redman was the center about which the Terre Haute election corruption conspiracy was built. This was recognized by Federal Judge A. B. Anderson who sentenced Redman to serve five years in Leavenworth prison and pay a fine of $1,000. Mayor Donn M. Roberts of Terre Haute, alone of all the conspirators, got a stiffer sentence, and Roberts was recognized as the guiding hand of the conspiracy.

The conspiracy was built up about Redman for the purpose of electing him judge of Vigo county. This it accomplished, according to the election returns, by a majority of ten over Charles Pulliam, the Republican candidate. If evidence before the United States District Court may be accepted, the conspiracy counted upwards of 600 illegal votes to gain this majority of ten.

While the conspiracy was working to "put Redman over" it was with the general understanding that the individuals in the conspiracy were safe from punishment. According to federal court evidence, parties to the conspiracy re-assured those who faltered by telling them there was no danger; the chief of police and his assistant, the sheriff, the city judge and all of the city officials, including the mayor, were in the conspiracy, and no one dreamed that the district attorney would establish a precedent and "clean up Terre Haute."

Redman, Roberts and a chosen few of the conspirators, chose to fight the government at every stage of the prosecution, refusing to admit themselves parties to any conspiracy. Maintaining the same policy Redman has been fighting the attempt to impeach him and to contest his election.

BAD HOUSING IS ONE CAUSE

DR. ISAAC BREWER SPEAKS

Bacilli Have Been Found in Room Two Years After Death of Patient—Other Questions

(By United Press.) Seattle, Wash., June 16.—How is it possible to become infected with the deadly germs of tuberculosis in one's house? What houses are infected and how can they be discovered? These questions and others occupied the attention of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis at their session today, in this city.

"Students of preventive medicine are coming to feel that the housing of the people is one of the great factors in the cause of tuberculosis," declared Dr. Isaac W. Brewer, of Geneva, N. Y., to the medical delegates of the convention.

The histories of our clinics show many cases which are apparently house infections. Between 1880 and 1905 a house in Cumberland county, Pennsylvania, was occupied successively by four families, a total of 32 persons. Eleven cases of tuberculosis developed among the inhabitants and at the time of the report there were three suspects.

"Tubercular bacilli have been found in a virulent state in the dust of a room two years after the death of the occupant. It would seem therefore that bad housing is frequently a direct cause of tuberculosis infection."

Steal Eatables.

(By United Press.)

Binghamton, N. Y., June 16.—Strike breakers enroute to Chicago raided at least two stations on the Erie railroad early today, taking everything eatable in sight and damaging property like devastating hordes.

The special train carrying 700 men passed through Binghamton shortly after midnight. During a brief stop the men raided the Wells-Fargo express office, stole $200 worth of ice cream awaiting shipment and other provisions.

At Susquehanna the men raided the station lunch room and stole everything in sight.

Mrs. C. H. Tompkins and Mrs. Harry McMillin entertained a number of guests at the beautiful country home of the latter yesterday with a three course luncheon, and at cards. Covers were laid for thirty-two guests.

* * *

A bountiful pitch-in dinner was enjoyed by a crowd of twenty-five from Milroy and Gings, at the pretty country home of Mr. and Mrs. Abel C. Ging Sunday. The Milroy crowd went to hear Rev. A. W. Crabb, who, with his wife, is holding a meeting at the Ben Davis Creek church and who, some few years ago, held such a successful revival at Milroy. The ladies quartet of Milroy, under the direction of Lloyd Nelson, gave a splendid number at the afternoon meeting. Those present at the pitch-in were:

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Jackman, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Nelson and son Kenneth, Mrs. Bessie Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Crane, Mrs. Harry Philip, Mrs. Nell Parsons, Misses Emma Clay Marshall, Oma Whitehead and Nellie King, Mr. Clarence Brown and Floyd Kinnet of Milroy, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ging and family of Raleigh, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Daubenpeck and family, Mrs. A. Nelson, Mrs. Minor Bell and Miss Georgia Hunt of Gings.

The active members of Phi chapter of the Kappa Kappa Kappa sorority of this city entertained the active members of Omega Chapter at Greensburg and Alpha Xi chapter of Connersville at the Social Club today. A two course luncheon was served at twelve-thirty o'clock and the remainder of the afternoon was spent at cards.

There were thirteen girls from Omega chapter and fourteen from Alpha Xi. The patronesses of the local chapter, Mrs. Will M. Sparks and Mrs. James E. Watson, together with Miss Jessie Meyers, of Warren, Ohio, visiting Miss Edith Buell, were also guests.

Covers were laid for forty-eight. The tables were tastefully decorated, each with a beautiful bouquet of flowers, and at each place was a place card bearing the name of the chapter and tied to a white carnation, the sorority flower, with a black ribbon. Two members of Phi chapter were seated at each table, together with one member from each of the visiting chapters.

Hanging baskets of flowers, palms and honeysuckle festooned over the large glass doors leading from the luncheon room to the dance hall constituted the decorations, with the exception that black and white ribbon the sorority colors, was much in evidence, and three large "Ks" adorned the windows.

The three pledges to Phi chapter Miss Estelle Jones, Miss Esther Black and Miss Fanny Stiers served.

Auction and Five Hundred was played this afternoon. The honors were to go to the highest score in each of the visiting chapters. The gifts were Tri Kappa emblems.

Mayor Bebout stated today the city council did not give permission to place floral decorations on the side walks, but assured florists that they would not be moved so long as there was no complaint against them. If it was the desire of the merchants to decorate the streets that way, it was stated there would be no objection from the council.

Chairman Board Directors Cunard Co. Testifies in Inquiry.

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

London, June 16—Chairman A. A. Booth of the Cunard Co., board of directors today admitted the Lusitania was proceeding at a comparatively slow rate of speed when she was torpedoed because the company wanted to save money.

Booth was the first witness at today's session of the inquiry into the sinking of the Lusitania. He corroborated the statement of Captain Turner that he had been ordered to work only nineteen boilers to save coal and labor costs.

Stimulating Business

War orders continue to stimulate business in the United States. Although industry has not yet reached the degree of activity enjoyed two years ago, it is noticeably better than last year after it had suffered the effects of one year of Democratic administration, according to Washington correspondence.

One of the recent disclosures was the effect of the European war on the market for copper. The price of copper had rapidly advanced and copper mining and smelting companies began doing a profitable business in the last two or three months; yet there was no noticeable demand for copper from Europe. Investigations as to the cause for renewed prosperity in the copper industry brought the information that the use of copper in the manufacture of brass, in making cartridges, shells and other equipment had created a new and enlarged demand. Exports of brass for the first three months in 1913 amounted to nearly 19,000,000 pounds, as compared with 1,781,000 pounds for the same period a year ago.

The entry of Italy as a party to the European war has called attention to the fact that for the last few months that country has been an enormous buyer of American products, either in preparation for her own needs during the war, or an intermediary in supplying material to other European nations. For nine months ending March, exports to Italy amounted to $138,700,000 as compared with $58,800,000 for the corresponding period of 1914. Shipments of wheat alone during this period amounted to 41,370,000 bushels as compared with 1,400,000 bushels for the same period in 1914. This shows in a large measure, the reason why farmers have been getting a high price for wheat.

Dispatches from Chicago give the information that British and Belgian buyers have been taking American horses freely and paying as high as $200 each. Market reports from Kansas City contain the information that the European war has added enormously to the value and demand for grain and has provided a market for thousands of horses for which the farmer had little need.

It is apparent that although Germany is cut off from direct communication with the United States, it is securing American products in large quantities from other sources. For example in March of this year our exports to Denmark were more than $11,500,000, while for the same month a year ago, they were only $1,350,000. Other countries bordering on or adjacent to Germany, show corresponding increases from this country, leaving no room for doubt that goods sold to them find their way to German buyers.

It is not alone in munitions of war and food-stuffs that America has found enormous demand in Europe. A Providence, R. I., concern ships hundreds of thousands of pairs of shoe laces each week to England; and a Philadelphia factory filled an emergency call for 10,000,000 needles in one lot to Liverpool. Drugs, chemicals and hospital supplies add very materially to the demand. Automobile exports in February, 1915, aggregated $4,807,812 in value as compared with $2,461,955 in the same month in 1914, an increase of more than 93 per cent.

All this not only creates a market for American products, but provides business for steamship companies that necessarily do part of their own buying in this country. The French line alone has within the past three weeks placed under charter 37 steam-

SPLIT WAS OVER
A SECOND TERM

This Reported to be Real Reason For Dividing of Ways Between Wilson and Bryan.

WILSON BELIEVED CANDIDATE

Nebraskan Quit Because President Refused to Look on Baltimore Platform as Binding.

New York, June 16.—The keenest curiosity has been aroused as to President Wilson's political intentions in 1916 by the presumption that William J. Bryan will be a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Recently the impression began to spread that Mr. Wilson seriously was contemplating not being a candidate for a second term, and a number of plausible reasons were advanced in explanation of this supposed frame of mind. Now this view is changing and the recent actions of Mr. Bryan are largely responsible.

The opinion is held by some prominent Democrats that Mr. Bryan broke with the President primarily because he could not induce Mr. Wilson to interpret the single term plank of the 1912 Democratic platform as obligating him not to run in 1916, although Mr. Bryan publicly ascribed his resignation from the Cabinet to the difference between him and the President as to the text of the second Lusitania note that was sent to Germany last week.

As stated last night, the general opinion prevailing in Democratic circles here is that Mr. Bryan's resignation is merely the forerunner of a canvass for the nomination next year.

Since they thus construe the course of the former Secretary of State such Democrats as had come to doubt that the President would seek a renomination are veering around to the view entertained by Democrats generally, to-wit, that the President never seriously thought of not being a candidate for a second term. But it is no secret that most Democrats in public life have held to the opinion that the President would be a candidate again because they regarded him as the strongest man in their party and the one who, above any one else, not excepting Mr. Bryan, stood the best chance of insuring Democratic success in the next national election.

But in the absence of a definite declaration or an unmistakable intimation from Mr. Wilson his purpose continued to be a matter of conjecture, reasonable as it seemed to most people that he would desire a renomination and re-election. Now, however, Mr. Bryan has furnished the nearest thing to evidence as to Mr. Wilson's plans by resigning from the Cabinet for the apparent object of competing with him in 1916.

If this theory of politicians that the former Secretary contemplates entering the race is incorrect, or un-ers to sterilized mainly for the transportation of war freight from the Atlantic seaboard to Europe.

But even all these orders for American products are not sufficient to keep up the price of some commodities under competition with products given free entry under the Democratic tariff law.

Claude G. Bowers, secretary to Senator Kern, made a speech in Indianapolis the other day before the Irish-American Democratic club, in which he scored calamity howlers. It would not take a good memory to recall that Senator Kern spoke in Rushville not many years ago and his keynote was calamity when times were prosperous and there was no occasion for the calamity talk, except as a means to get into office.

The Indianapolis Star recently printed an editorial in which the chief thought was that method, not size, was the thing that counted with big organizations of business. If the Star had just been fair enough to admit such a thing in the last presidential campaign, when it was assaulting all big business regardless of what was the true status of affairs.

warranted, a statement from Mr. Bryan himself could quickly put them straight as to his intentions. Some of the President's friends here are rather hopeful that Mr. Bryan will soon make a disavowal of presidential aspirations in 1916 in the event he was not possessed of such an ambition when the rupture between him and the President occurred.

It was pointed out today that there are clear indications of a concerted movement to bring about the President's renomination and one of the evidences brought forward is the presence of a number of members of the Democratic National Committee in important public offices in Washington. To begin with, Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, is the committeeman from North Carolina. Cato Sells, the committeeman from Texas, is the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. J. E. Osborn, an Assistant Secretary of State, is the committeeman from Wyoming. Joseph Trade Commission, is said to retain his membership from Wisconsin.

In view of the fact that the resignation of Mr. Davies as Secretary of the National Committee was announced about the time of his appointment as Chairman of the Trade Commission, it was supposed that he relinquished his membership on the committee. But William F. McCombs, Chairman of the committee, replying to an inquiry today, said that the resignation of Mr. Davies as a member of the committee had not been received by him and therefore has not been accepted, although formal acceptance of his resignation from the Secretaryship was recently made a matter of record.

Of the three essentials—strength, organization and service—afforded to clients of this Bank, SERVICE is not the least important.

The Bank's entire organization is permeated with the spirit of service. It is not enough to accept and safeguard the banking and trust business of clients; every effort is put forth to be of additional active service, within the Bank's proper sphere.

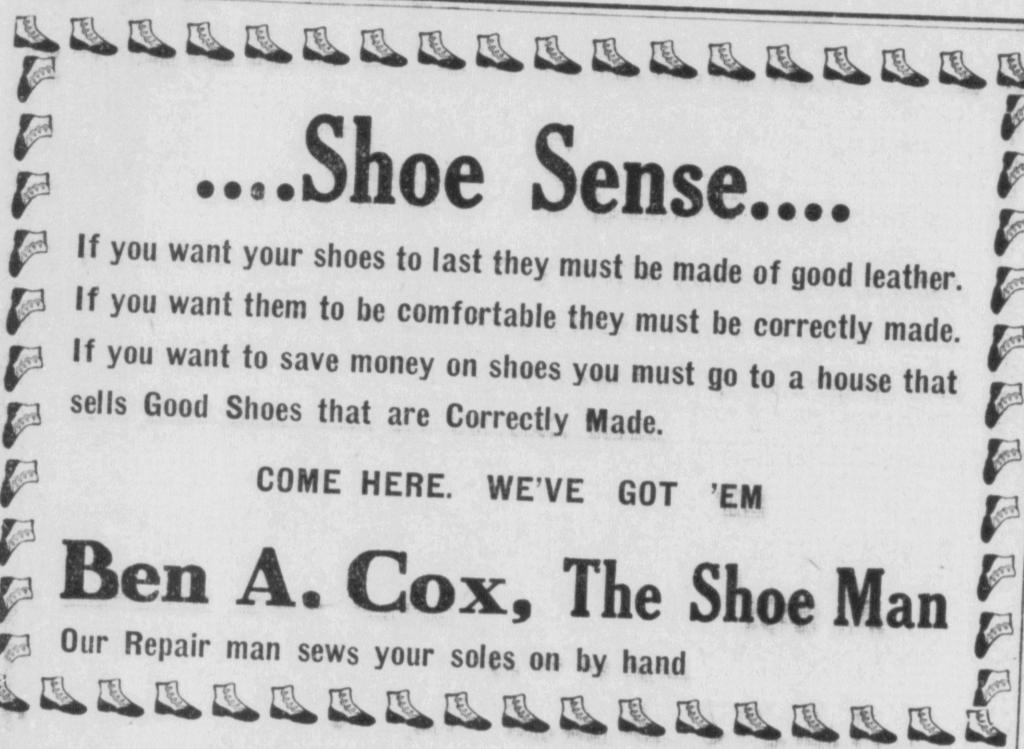

For example, the Bank, if appointed custodian of securities, will as agent sign ownership certificates required by the Federal Income Tax Law, collect dividends and coupons promptly as they mature, and either credit or remit the proceeds to the client; and will promptly notify him should any "rights" or other subscription privileges attach to the securities held.

Another example, clients are welcome to the Bank's facilities for investment and for investigating and analyzing the value of securities.

Many other examples of special service to clients might be mentioned, all of which would help to explain the rapid and substantial growth of this Bank's business.

TIGER TEAM HAS PENNANT BUG

Marvelous And Consistent Playing of Ty Cobb is Largely Responsible For Showing

STILL STICK AROUND THE TOP

Jennings Also Has a Good Pitching Staff—Bush is Playing Game Like a Youngster

BY BARRY FARIS

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, June 16.—The marvelous and consistent playing of the Peerless Ty Cobb is responsible for the Tigers' position in the American League pennant gallop this summer. The Georgia Peach is experiencing his year in the w. k. pastime and judging by his poorest seasons records by the barrel full are destined to fall in 1915.

The Tiger clan is infected with the pennant bug. Every member of the team is already figuring on what he is going to do with his share of the world's series money. They don't concede any other team in the Johnson loop a chance to cop.

Cobb's great playing is the main cause. The marvelous Tyrus, has the pennant bug worse than any of his teammates and they have become infected with his enthusiasm. Ty is warily avoiding battles on and off the field that might keep him out of the lineup even a day. He knows as well as anyone that his strength offensively wins many games for the Detroit crew and he doesn't want to hurt the club's chances.

Ty has won several games single-handed this year. Against the Yanks recently here, when the Tigers won, 3 to 0, Cobb scored two runs himself and drove in the other one. Incidentally he stole second and home to score one of the runs.

Cobb is leading the league, both at the bat and on bases. Fritz Maisel, the Yankees' speedy third sacker, announced this spring that he was out to take the base-stealing honors from Cobb. The latter evidently heard the statement. It looks like he is out to show the Yankee youngster up as a boaster.

Jennings has about as classy a pitching staff this year as anyone in the circuit. At least his slab artists are in better shape than those of any other club with the possible exception of the White Sox. Monsieur Jean Dubuc, a sharpshooter named Boland and George Dauss are doing most of the heavy work. Dauss and Dubuc have been with the Tigers sometime but Boland is a recent acquisition.

Cobb doesn't furnish all the heavy artillery for the club, even though he does lead the league. His pals in the outer gardens—Veach and Crawford, are both slamming the ball in the select three hundred class.

Diminutive Donie Bush, who has been shortstopping for the Tigers for years, has been full of that old life all spring and is playing with the pepper of a youngster. Burns, Jennings' regular first sacker, was injured early in the season, Kavanagh has been filling his shoes so successfully that his absence hasn't been noticed much. Pep Young, a former Yankee, is coveting around at second in great shape.

NUMBER HAS NO TERROR FOR BOYS

Twenty-Three Richmond Y. M. C. A.

Youths Establish Camp on Flatrock Nine Miles South of Here.

COME DOWN IN AUTOMOBILES

Two Officials go Ahead of Delegation and Erect Tents and Prepare Camp For Their Coming.

Twenty-three has no terrors for a lot of youthful fun hunters who yesterday established a camp nine miles south of here in the vicinity of Moscow, along the banks and there are just 23 of them.

The boys are members of the Richmond Y. M. C. A., who are on their annual summer outing. Officials of the Y. M. C. A. went to the site of the camp Monday and prepared for the arrival of the boys.

They made the trip from Richmond in four automobiles. When the machines passed through here yesterday morning about eleven o'clock, they attracted some attention, because the boys were all hilarious in prospect of ten days of fun along the river.

The boys were accompanied by Secretary Learner, of the Richmond Y. M. C. A., who was the only official accompanying them. There was some delay in starting yesterday morning because it was feared the roads might be in a bad state after the heavy rain of Monday afternoon.

Each boy carried a bundle containing only what he, himself knew. Some carried fishing-poles, all had knives and strings and what-nots.

Monday, J. J. Somerville, head of the Boys' department, and A. M. Roach, physical director, went to the camp to erect the tents and prepare the equipment for the arrival of the boys.

The camp will be held for ten days at an ideal outing place nine miles south of here. It is located at a bend of the Flatrock river. There will be swimming, athletic contests and various other amusements which have been arranged by Mr. Somerville.

VEGETABLE CALOMEL

Vegetable calomel, extract of the root of the old-fashioned may-apple plant, does not salivate. As a liver stimulator, it's great. It's a perfect substitute for ordinary calomel (mercury); in fact, it's better, because its action is gentle instead of severe and irritating—and it leaves no mean, disagreeable after-effects. Physicians recognize this and prescribe may-apple root (podophyllin, they call it) daily.

Combined with four other standard, all-vegetable remedies, may-apple root may now be had at most any druggist's in convenient sugar-coated tablet form by asking for Sentinel Laxatives. If you forget the name, ask for the box that has the picture of the soldier on it.

These tablets are small, easy to take and are really wonderful little performers.

They quickly clean out the poisons that are causing you headache, constipation, sour stomach, biliousness, dizzy spells, bad breath and coated tongue.

They are mild. They never gripe. And they are a bowel tonic as well as a cleanser and liver regulator. A 10c box should last one several weeks. A Physician's trial package (4 doses) will be mailed you free if you write mentioning this advertisement. The Sentinel Remedies Co., 802 Madison Ave., Covington, Ky.

HIS BEST SERMONS ARE PLAGARISMS

Ex-Secretary of Billy Sunday Makes This Allegation Against Former Chief Today.

TAKEN FROM EVANGELISTS

(By United Press.)

Philadelphia, June 16.—"Billy Sunday's most effective sermons were plagiarized."

Bentley D. Ackley, ex-secretary to the baseball evangelist, made that statement today when he charged the sermons Sunday delivered in his revivals in this city, Patterson and elsewhere were almost exact counterparts of those delivered by Evangelist Sam Jones, Talmadge and Gipsy Smith.

Ackley alleged that Sunday's sermon, "New Birth," which seldom failed to reap a harvest of "sawdust trail hitters" was preached several years ago by Gipsy Smith. He said he himself took the sermon in shorthand when Smith delivered it at Winona Lake, Ind.

The former secretary also alleges Sunday's sermon on "The Ten Commandments" was taken from the writings of Evangelist Talmadge and that "Come Home to Roost" was first delivered by Sam Jones.

TODAY'S ODDEST STORY.

(By United Press.)

Joplin, Mo., June 16.—Wm. Miller, 101 years old who wanted to marry for the third time asked a local minister to get him a license to wed. The minister pulled a form from his desk and started to write.

"And the er-er young lady's name is?" he asked.

Miller didn't know his bride-to-be other than she was "that widow woman who keeps house for me."

He returned home to ask his intended her name.

BOY'S DEATH TO BE PROBED

FIENDS SAY HE IS A CANDIDATE

Grand Jury is Instructed by Judge Sparks Today to Investigate Demise of Charles Hall.

KILLED NEAR MILFROY JUNE 4

Court Also Tells Jurors They Should Make Inquiry Into Liquor Law Violations.

Investigation into the death of Charles Hall, the Milroy high school boy, whose mangled remains were found along the Big Four railway track, two miles south of Milroy on the morning of June 4, was started this morning by the grand jury.

Ever since the death of young Hall there has been rumors in and around Milroy regarding foul play, many people believing that Hall was first murdered and the body placed on the track to cover up the crime. So persistent have these rumors been that Prosecutor Stevens decided to bring the matter before the grand jury in an effort to see if there was any truth in the statements.

Coroner Barnett, in filing his verdict, found that death was accidental and was caused by trespassing on the right-of-way of the Big Four railway. Hall was a boy well liked in Milroy and many people there believe he had one enemy who was jealous over the fact that Hall was going with Miss Roxie Fishback, of Williamstown. Hall was returning home from the Fishback residence when death occurred.

In his charge to grand jury Judge Sparks called attention to the rather mysterious death of Charles Hall and asked the grand jury to take the case up and see if there were any grounds for the rumors of foul play. This is not all Judge Sparks told the jury. He stated that there was undoubtedly violations of the liquor laws here in Rushville and that gambling was going on. He urged the grand jury as a matter of duty to take up these things.

Judge Sparks told the grand jury that while he was accusing no one it seemed as though the city officials were not able to cope with the situation here in Rushville and urged the grand jury to make a cleaning of the "blind tigers" and gamblers.

This is the first session of the grand jury this term of court. One member of the original grand jury was excused. This was Greeley O. Ball, and the court appointed Lige Kirkpatrick to take his place. James Cassady is acting as grand jury bailiff. The first witnesses this morning were Mr. and Mrs. William Tully, living south of Milroy, who found the body of Charles Hall along the railway tracks.

BOY DIES OF PNEUMONIA

Elmer M. Ratekin, Age Nine Years, Expires Following Long Illness

Elmer Martin Ratekin, nine years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Ratekin, died this morning at 2:30 o'clock at the home of his parents, corner of Spencer and Ninth streets, after an illness of several weeks from pneumonia and a complication of diseases. His death had been expected. He is survived by his parents and several brothers and sisters. The funeral services will be conducted Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the Richland M. E. church and burial will take place in the cemetery there.

A marriage license was issued this morning to David G. Whitton and Daisy M. Stevens.

FIENDS SAY HE IS A CANDIDATE

Following Editors' Outing, it is Stated James E. Watson Will be Urged to Seek Nomination.

FOR SENATOR FROM INDIANA

In Last Few Weeks, Talk is Growing and His Friends Are Doing Heroic Work For Him.

Writing from Indianapolis to the Huntington Herald, Ellis Seales, an Indianapolis newspaper man, says that the talk has been revived among James E. Watson's friends concerning him as a candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator. Even though Mr. Watson has repeated again and again he is not a candidate, the reports became insistent at the annual summer outing of the Indiana Editorial association last week. Mr. Seales says:

Friends of James E. Watson are diligently insisting that he is a candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator, although Watson himself has not made any announcement of his candidacy. Watson accompanied the Indiana Republican Editorial association on its outing trip to Louisville and Corydon last week, and was one of the biggest figures in the party. There were other prominent men on the trip, also, some of them being avowed aspirants for office while others have not yet made their announcements.

For example, William L. Taylor, of Indianapolis, former attorney general, was one of the party that went on the outing trip, and he is generally understood to be a candidate for senator, even though he has kept the fact to himself. But his very appearance on the excursion was taken by those present to mean that he is in the race. Then there was Hugh Miller, of Columbus who was the nominee for United States senator in 1914. He also was on the excursion and extended the glad hand to his many friends. They are claiming the nomination for senator for him as a right, because he was on the ticket in 1914 when there was not a ghost of a chance to win. They say this entitled him to another nomination at a time when there seems to be little doubt of success.

State Senator Arthur Robinson, of Indianapolis, is an out and out avowed candidate for senator, and he is making the welkin ring with his appeal for votes. He went on the excursion, too. Robinson has been picking up some support in various parts of the state, but whether he is hefty enough to put it over is still a question. He says he represents the element of the party that stands for a new deal, whatever that is.

If Watson makes an open announcement of his candidacy the race will be a badly mixed affair, with the chance favoring no particular candidate. Up to recently there was much doubt about Watson becoming a candidate. In fact, about all of the current talk was that he would not run. But in the last few weeks the Watson talk has been growing, and his close political friends are doing heroic work for him. It is a well known fact that Watson numbers among his supporters some of the ablest Republican political workers in the state, and if they turn loose for him they will be sure to do some heavy work.

Judge Walter Olds of Fort Wayne, is an uncertain element in the race for United States senator, because nobody has been able thus far to figure out what amount of support he will receive. On all sides it is acknowledged that he is a strong man and his friends declare that if the Republicans of the state could but know him they would nominate him.

HOLDS RECEIVER IS NOT NEEDED

Judge Sparks Dismisses Albert Stevens in Davis & Jones Case Today.

RECEIVERSHIP IS OPPOSED

Suit of John C., Rufus and Homer Folger Against Emerson Barnard Begins.

Judge Sparks this morning refused a receiver for the Davis & Jones millinery store in the suit brought by William E. Jones against Lelah Davis, Elizabeth Jones and Jefferson C. Davis. The case was heard on the petition for a receiver and the court found for the defendants.

The receivership was opposed by Jefferson C. Davis, who holds a mortgage on the millinery store. The court found that the mortgage was good and that there was no attempt at fraud. The complaint stated that the firm of Davis & Jones was indebted to him in the sum of $148 that he had advanced in payment for some merchandise.

Jefferson Davis has a suit pending against Davis & Jones to foreclose the mortgage he holds on the place and the business of the firm will more than likely be settled when this case is heard. Albert C. Stevens was appointed temporary receiver for the store, but his duties ended with the decision today. Chauncey Duncan represented the plaintiff and John Titsworth appeared for Jefferson Davis.

Riley Stewart, by paying $51 cash and an additional $100, will be relieved from further payments towards the support of his divorced wife, Minnie Stewart. This was the decision made today when an agreement was entered and the court found for him. The petition was to modify a decree and under the terms of the agreement Stewart admitted that he had failed to pay his wife $51, since filing the petition. The paying of the additional $100 relieves him from further payments.

While Judge Sparks was conducting court in the juvenile room Judge Fred C. Gause of Newcastle was hearing the case of John C. Folger, Rufus Folger and Homer Folger against Emerson Barnard, to quiet title, in the large court room. This case will occupy several days as there is a list of probably forty witnesses to testify. The suit involved 80 acres of land in Posey township. John A. Titsworth and A. L. Gary appear for the plaintiffs and Megee & Ross represent the defendant.

CARNIVAL AGAIN THIS YEAR

Young Men of Catholic Church Announce Dates For Event.

It was announced today that the Catholic carnival will be held again this year. It is an annual event given by the young men of the Catholic church, to which many always look forward. The carnival will take place in the park at the corner of Fifth and Perkins streets, as usual, and the dates are July 20, 21, 22, 23 and 24. The attractions will include merry-go-round, country store, bowing alley, fancy booth, candy ice cream cone boot and others. The vaudeville stunts will be put on by local people and will be changed each evening. There will also be a band concert each evening.

A six-pound baby girl has been born to the wife of Knowles Casady in North Jackson street. The baby has been named Eileen.

MAKE PLANS FOR 2 NEW STREETS

Council Passes Resolution For Improvement of Two in Stewart & Tompkins Addition.

SIDEWALKS WILL BE BUILT

Fire Committee Reports That Tower Supporting Fire Bell is Not in Very Bad Condition.

Preliminary steps for extensive street improvement in the Stewart & Tompkins addition to Belmont were taken last night by the city council. A resolution was passed calling for the improvement of North Perkins street by constructing a water bound macadam highway from Eleventh street to the south side of the alley on the north side of the Stewart and Tompkins addition.

The residents in this section of the street petitioned the council last year for a concrete street and the council prepared plans for a macadam street. If the residents there still desire the street to be paved with concrete they will have to present a petition to the council asking for this.

In ease the petition is presented, the council will have to grant it. It is understood that the people there are still in favor of a concrete street and it is more than likely that it will be paved with this.

July 6, or the first meeting in July, was set for the time for hearing remonstrances. At this time the petition calling for concrete will be presented.

In order that there will be no dead end to North Perkins street the council decided to improve Twelfth street from Main over to Perkins street. The engineer was instructed to draw up plans and specifications for the improvement of the street by constructing a roadway of macadam.

This will give an outlet from North Perkins street over to Main street and should prove a great improvement as the street has never been built.

Two petitions asking for permission to construct cement sidewalks were granted by the council. The walks will be constructed privately, at no costs to the city, and under the provisions of the city ordinance. The first was granted to Jacob Kuntz in North Julian street. The other was given to Dr. D. D. Dragoo, who desires to build a walk in Eleventh street at the corner of Perkins.

The fire committee reported that after investigating they found that the bell tower supporting the fire bell was not in as bad a condition as they had been led to believe.

It was stated that the tower needed a new foundation and that this could be put in for $75 or $100 and thus save the expense of buying a new tower.

The finance committee reported that the treasurer's report for the month of May had been found correct.

The clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for supplies at the water and light plant. The supplies include coal, electric lamps, oil and electric meters. The council will receive bids for a year's supply on these articles at a special meeting on Friday, July 16.

NOT PERMITTED HERE.

A lodge called the Fraternal Order of Oaks, which was to have been installed in this city soon will not get to, according to a letter received today by S. V. Blair, the local organizer, from the Auditor of State, Dale J. Crittenden. The letter stated that the order did not come under the Indiana State laws and was not an Indiana corporation. Rushville was the first city in Indiana where the organizer had attempted to institute the lodge.

CHICAGO STREET CAR STRIKE OFF

Full Service Resumed Today After Agreement on All - But Two Points Which Will be Arbitrated

FOLLOWS ALL NIGHT CONFLAB

Each Motorman and Conductor Wears Small American Flag Pinned to Coat When Cars Start.

(By United Press.) Chicago, June 16.—The great Chicago street car strike was called off at five o'clock this morning. Full service on all elevated lines was resumed at noon.

Agreement to end the most complete transportation tie-up this nation has ever known was reached following an all night conference with all sides represented at Mayor Thompson's office.

It was not until dawn was breaking that the opposing factions agreed to concede certain points and to arbitrate the others. There were two questions to be arbitrated. They are the length of time the men must work to receive a maximum wage and a wage scale.

Mayor Thompson was vested by both sides with full powers to impose the points in dispute.

The men agreed to return to work at the old wage scale. Any change in wages that may be granted will date back to June 1. Partial resumption of service on the elevated roads went into effect shortly before eight o'clock this morning with the union crews in charge.

The rumble of surface cars and the roar of elevated trains that were running on full service schedule at noon today was the sweetest music leg weary Chicagoans have heard in two days that seemed that many years. The noon hour marked the end to the strike of 14,500 motormen and conductors which had set Chicago back fifty years in street transportation. Throughout the strike some cars were run over the elevated tracks but there were no passengers except guards and policeman. Last night some of the more courageous ventured to ride.

The first surface cars to pass through the loop were the signals for a demonstration from the thousands who passed on the sidewalk. Every motorman and conductor wore an American flag pinned to his coat and larger flags floated from the cars.

SAILS WITH SEALED ORDERS

Italian Fleet Leaves Harbor After Wonderful Demonstration.

(By United Press.) Rome, June 16.—The Italian fleet sailed under sealed orders late last night from the seaport Paronto at the southeastern end of Italy.

Before the fleet steamed into the Adriatic, a remarkable religious service was held in the ancient cathedral Cataldo. The archbishop pronounced a patriotic service and called for a great naval victory for the king.

All afternoon great crowds streamed into the cathedral. Towards evening a great throng gathered along the harbor front to watch the fleet.

DELIVERY SYSTEM SOLD.

E. E. Benson has sold his delivery system to John Davis and the new owner will take charge July 1. There will be no changes in the system. Mr. Benson is undecided as to the future. Last Monday night Mr. Benson gave a banquet to the merchants in the system at the Windsor hotel.

ELI REDMAN IS REMOVED TODAY

State Supreme Court Rules on Impeachment Proceedings Filed by Attorney General.

INTEREST IN LEGAL ASPECT

Court Finds Law Unconstitutional Which Would Have Disfranchised Redman for Life.

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, Ind., June 16.—The state supreme court today ordered the removal of Eli Redman as judge of the Vigo county circuit court.

Since Redman, who is in Leavenworth prison with other Terre Haute politicians, has already been unseated by an unfavorable decision in an election contest brought by Charles Pulliam, chief interest in today's decision centered in its legal aspect. The court ruled the law unconstitutional which would have disfranchised Redman and made him ineligible to hold office in the future. Today's decision was made on impeachment proceedings brought by the attorney general.

Eli Redman was the center about which the Terre Haute election corruption conspiracy was built. This was recognized by Federal Judge A. B. Anderson who sentenced Redman to serve five years in Leavenworth prison and pay a fine of $1,000. Mayor Donn M. Roberts of Terre Haute, alone of all the conspirators, got a stiffer sentence, and Roberts was recognized as the guiding hand of the conspiracy.

The conspiracy was built up about Redman for the purpose of electing him judge of Vigo county. This it accomplished, according to the election returns, by a majority of ten over Charles Pulliam, the Republican candidate. If evidence before the United States District Court may be accepted, the conspiracy counted upwards of 600 illegal votes to gain this majority of ten.

While the conspiracy was working to "put Redman over" it was with the general understanding that the individuals in the conspiracy were safe from punishment. According to federal court evidence, parties to the conspiracy reassured those who faltered by telling them there was no danger; the chief of police and his assistant, the sheriff, the city judge and all of the city officials, including the mayor, were in the conspiracy, and no one dreamed that the district attorney would establish a precedent and "clean up Terre Haute."

Redman, Roberts and a chosen few of the conspirators, chose to fight the government at every stage of the prosecution, refusing to admit themselves parties to any conspiracy. Maintaining the same policy Redman has been fighting the attempt to impeach him and to contest his election.

BAD HOUSING IS ONE CAUSE

DR. ISAAC BREWER SPEAKS

Bacilli Have Been Found in Room Two Years After Death of Patient—Other Questions

(By United Press)

Seattle, Wash., June 16.—How is it possible to become infected with the deadly germs of tuberculosis in one's house? What houses are infected and how can they be discovered? These questions and others occupied the attention of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis at their session today, in this city.

"Students of preventive medicine are coming to feel that the housing of the people is one of the great factors in the cause of tuberculosis," declared Dr. Isaac W. Brewer, of Geneva, N. Y., to the medical delegates of the convention.

"The histories of our clinics show many cases which are apparently house infections. Between 1880 and 1905 a house in Cumberland county, Pennsylvania, was occupied successively by four families, a total of 32 persons. Eleven cases of tuberculosis developed among the inhabitants and at the time of the report there were three suspects.

"Tubercular bacilli have been found in a virulent state in the dust of a room two years after the death of the occupant. It would seem therefore that bad housing is frequently a direct cause of tuberculosis infection."

UP-TO-NOW IN DESIGN

Designs as shown by some firms are more or less freakish or fadish to attract the attention of the prospective customers with scarcely a thought of their wearing appearance or correctness in proportion. But then they are merely on paper and represent but a small loss if they don't take.

We have faith in our ability as radical designers and as proof we show at our works a most complete selection of ready to erect monuments designed by our nationally recognized designer, Mr. A. H. Schmitz. J. B. SCHMITZ SONS MONUMENTS

War orders continue to stimulate business in the United States. Although industry has not yet reached the degree of activity enjoyed two years ago, it is noticeably better than last year after it had suffered the effects of one year of Democratic administration, according to Washington correspondence.

One of the recent disclosures was the effect of the European war on the market for copper. The price of copper had rapidly advanced and copper mining and smelting companies began doing a profitable business in the last two or three months; yet there was no noticeable demand for copper from Europe. Investigations as to the cause for renewed prosperity in the copper industry brought the information that the use of copper in the manufacture of brass, in making cartridges, shells and other equipment had created a new and enlarged demand. Exports of brass for the first three months in 1913 amounted to nearly 19,000,000 pounds, as compared with 1,781,000 pounds for the same period a year ago.

The entry of Italy as a party to the European war has called attention to the fact that for the last few months that country has been an enormous buyer of American products, either in preparation for her own needs during the war, or an intermediary in supplying material to other European nations. For nine months ending March, exports to Italy amounted to $138,700,000 as compared with $58,800,000 for the corresponding period of 1914. Shipments of wheat alone during this period amounted to 41,370,000 bushels, as compared with 1,400,000 bushels for the same period in 1914. This shows in a large measure, the reason why farmers have been getting a high price for wheat.

Dispatches from Chicago give the information that British and Belgian buyers have been taking American horses freely and paying as high as $200 each. Market reports from Kansas City contain the information that the European war has added enormously to the value and demand for grain and has provided a market for thousands of horses for which the farmer had little need.

It is apparent that although Germany is cut off from direct communication with the United States, it is securing American products in large quantities from other sources. For example in March of this year our exports to Denmark were more than $11,500,000, while for the same month a year ago, they were only $1,350,000.

Other countries bordering on or adjacent to Germany, show corresponding increases from this country, leaving no room for doubt that goods sold to them find their way to German buyers.

It is not alone in munitions of war and foodstuffs that America has found enormous demand in Europe. A Providence, R. I., concern ships hundreds of thousands of pairs of shoe-laces each week to England; and a Philadelphia factory filled an emergency call for 10,000,000 needles in one lot to Liverpool. Drugs, chemicals and hospital supplies add very materially to the demand. Automobile exports in February, 1915, aggregated $4,807,812 in value as compared with $2,461,955 in the same month in 1914, an increase of more than 93 per cent.

All this not only creates a market for American products, but provides business for steamship companies that necessarily do part of their own buying in this country. The French line alone has within the past three weeks placed under charter 37 steam-

SPLIT WAS OVER
A SECOND TERM

This Reported to be Real Reason For Dividing of Ways Between Wilson and Bryan.

WILSON BELIEVED CANDIDATE

Nebraskan Quit Because President Refused to Look on Baltimore Platform as Binding.

New York, June 16.—The keenest curiosity has been aroused as to President Wilson's political intentions in 1916 by the presumption that William J. Bryan will be a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Recently the impression began to spread that Mr. Wilson seriously was contemplating not being a candidate for a second term, and a number of plausible reasons were advanced in explanation of this supposed frame of mind. Now this view is changing and the recent actions of Mr. Bryan are largely responsible.

The opinion is held by some prominent Democrats that Mr. Bryan broke with the President primarily because he could not induce Mr. Wilson to interpret the single term plank of the 1912 Democratic platform as obliging him not to run in 1916, although Mr. Bryan publicly ascribed his resignation from the Cabinet to the difference between him and the President as to the text of the second Lusitania note that was sent to Germany last week.

As stated last night, the general opinion prevailing in Democratic circles here is that Mr. Bryan's resignation is merely the forerunner of a canvass for the nomination next year.

Since they thus construe the course of the former Secretary of State such Democrats as had come to doubt that the President would seek a renomination are veering around to the view entertained by Democrats generally, to-wit, that the President never seriously thought of not being a candidate for a second term. But it is no secret that most Democrats in public life have held to the opinion that the President would be a candidate again because they regarded him as the strongest man in their party and the one who, above any one else, not excepting Mr. Bryan, stood the best chance of insuring Democratic success in the next national election.

But in the absence of a definite declaration or an unmistakable intimation from Mr. Wilson his purpose continued to be a matter of conjecture, reasonable as it seemed to most people that he would desire a renomination and re-election. Now, however, Mr. Bryan has furnished the nearest thing to evidence as to Mr. Wilson's plans by resigning from the Cabinet for the apparent object of competing with him in 1916.

If this theory of politicians that the former Secretary contemplates entering the race is incorrect, or un-ers to be utilized mainly for the transportation of war freight from the Atlantic seaboard to Europe.

But even all these orders for American products are not sufficient to keep up the price of some commodities under competition with products given free entry under the Democratic tariff law.

Claude G. Bowers, secretary to Senator Kern, made a speech in Indianapolis the other day before the Irish-American Democratic club, in which he scored calamity howlers. It would not take a good memory to recall that Senator Kern spoke in Rushville not many years ago and his keynote was calamity when times were prosperous and there was no occasion for the calamity talk, except as a means to get into office.

The Indianapolis Star recently printed an editorial in which the chief thought was that method, not size, was the thing that counted with big organizations of business. If the Star had just been fair enough to admit such a thing in the last presidential campaign, when it was assaulting all big business regardless of what was the true status of affairs, warranted, a statement from Mr. Bryan himself could quickly put them straight as to his intentions. Some of the President's friends here are rather hopeful that Mr. Bryan will soon make a disavowal of presidential aspirations in 1916 in the event he was not possessed of such an ambition when the rupture between him and the President occurred.

It was pointed out today that there are clear indications of a concerted movement to bring about the President's renomination and one of the evidences brought forward is the presence of a number of members of the Democratic National Committee in important public offices in Washington. To begin with, Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, is the committeeman from North Carolina. Cato Sells, the committeeman from Texas, is the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. J. E. Osborn, an Assistant Secretary of State, is the committeeman from Wyoming. Joseph Trade Commission, is said to retain his membership from Wisconsin.

In view of the fact that the resignation of Mr. Davies as Secretary of the National Committee was announced about the time of his appointment as Chairman of the Trade Commission, it was supposed that he relinquished his membership on the committee. But William F. McCombs, Chairman of the committee, replying to an inquiry today, said that the resignation of Mr. Davies as a member of the committee had not been received by him and therefore has not been accepted, although formal acceptance of his resignation from the Secretaryship was recently made a matter of record.

S E R V I C E

Of the three essentials—strength, organization and service—afforded to clients of this Bank, SERVICE is not the least important.

The Bank's entire organization is permeated with the spirit of service. It is not enough to accept and safeguard the banking and trust business of clients; every effort is put forth to be of additional active service, within the Bank's proper sphere.

For example, the Bank, if appointed custodian of securities, will as agent sign ownership certificates required by the Federal Income Tax Law, collect dividends and coupons promptly as they mature, and either credit or remit the proceeds to the client; and will promptly notify him should any "rights" or other subscription privileges attach to the securities held.

Another example, clients are welcome to the Bank's facilities for investment and for investigating and analyzing the value of securities.

Many other examples of special service to clients might be mentioned, all of which would help to explain the rapid and substantial growth of this Bank's business.

This sale will hold good for 60 days if I don't run out of goods. Sale 1—Low Down Steel Spreader—the price is right. No one has a better spreader for the money.

Sale 2—Deering Binders and Mowers. They have the latest improvements. The binder has 18 inch shorter trucks than any other binder made.

I sell Gasoline Engines, all sizes, Grinding Mills, and I have 3½ horse power and 4½ horse power engines. Call on R. H. Berry or J. W. Tompkins and you can see them work. They are made by the Olds Manufacturing company.

The Buggies I am going to sell are the best goods I have in my store. They are the Columbia. I have sold them for 15 years. The reason I am selling these goods is I have no room for them. You can buy these goods lower than ever before sold. Sam Young says you had better buy one. It is a good one. Sam won't lie.

NUMBER HAS NO TERROR FOR BOYS

Twenty-Three Richmond Y. M. C. A. Youths Establish Camp on Flatrock Nine Miles South of Here.

COME DOWN IN AUTOMOBILES

Two Officials go Ahead of Delegation and Erect Tents and Prepare Camp For Their Coming.

Twenty-three has no terrors for a lot of youthful fun hunters who yesterday established a camp nine miles south of here in the vicinity of Moscow, along the banks and there are just 23 of them.

The boys are members of the Richmond Y. M. C. A., who are on their annual summer outing. Officials of the Y. M. C. A. went to the site of the camp Monday and prepared for the arrival of the boys.

They made the trip from Richmond in four automobiles. When the machines passed through here yesterday morning about eleven o'clock, they attracted some attention, because the boys were all hilarious in prospect of ten days of fun along the river.

The boys were accompanied by Secretary Learner, of the Richmond Y. M. C. A., who was the only official accompanying them. There was some delay in starting yesterday morning because it was feared the roads might be in a bad state after the heavy rain of Monday afternoon.

Each boy carried a bundle containing only what he himself knew. Some carried fishing-poles, all had knives and strings and what-nots.

Monday, J. J. Somerville, head of the Boys' department, and A. M. Roach, physical director, went to the camp to erect the tents and prepare the equipment for the arrival of the boys.

The camp will be held for ten days at an ideal outing place nine miles south of here. It is located at a bend of the Flatrock river. There will be swimming, athletic contests and various other amusements which have been arranged by Mr. Somerville.

The names of the boys who are attending the camp are: John Sullivan, Varley Young, Claude Russel, Morris Dillon, Robert Brämkamp, Ralph Motley, Robert Rees, James Saekman, Paul Quigg, Willard Morgan, Richard Robinson, Roland Collins, Kenneth Collins, Frank Crow, Everett Brinley, Herbert McMahan, Joseph Carrigan, Vernon Eubanks, Charles Duffin, Ralph Clendenin, William Clendenin, Alvert Mervin and Alfred Mervin.

NEW DIRECTORIES OUT.

New directories are being issued by the Rushville Co-operative Telephone company and will be ready for delivery tomorrow. Country subscribers may get one at the telephone office any time after Friday.

VEGETABLE CALOMEL

Vegetable calomel, extract of the root of the old-fashioned may-apple plant, does not salivate. As a liver stimulator, it's great. It's a perfect substitute for ordinary calomel (mercury); in fact, it's better, because its action is gentle instead of severe and irritating—and it leaves no mean, disagreeable after-effects. Physicians recognize this and prescribe may-apple root (podophyllin, they call it) daily.

Combined with four other standard, all-vegetable remedies, may-apple root may now be had at most any druggist's in convenient sugar-coated tablet form by asking for Sentinel Laxatives. If you forget the name, ask for the box that has the picture of the soldier on it.

These tablets are small, easy to take and are really wonderful little tablets.

They quickly clean out the poisons that are causing you headache, constipation, sour stomach, biliousness, dizzy spells, bad breath and coated tongue.

They are mild. They never gripe. And they are a bowel tonic as well as a cleanser and liver regulator. A 10c box should last one several weeks. A Physician's trial package (4 doses) will be mailed you free if you write mentioning this advertisement. The Sentinel Remedies Co., 802 Main Ave., Covington, Ky.

ZEPPELINS KILL FIFTEEN

Germans Raid Northeast Coast of England and do Much Damage.

(By United Press.)

London, June 16.—Fifteen persons were killed and sixteen wounded in a Zeppelin raid on the English northeast coast. The admiralty announced today that some fires were started by the bombs. This is the heaviest loss of life recorded in any raid by Zeppelins.

DISCUSSED YEARS AGO

Bryan Not Approached About Winona Assembly For Some Time.

(By United Press.)

Washington, June 16.—Asked today concerning a report that he was to head the Winona Assembly and Bible school, W. J. Bryan said:

"Two or three years ago I consented to become president of the Winona school and assembly whenever the debts were paid off and the reorganization completed. They have been working on the matter ever since but I have received no word of the completion of it."

HIS BEST SERMONS ARE PLAGARISMS

Ex-Secretary of Billy Sunday Makes This Allegation Against Former Chief Today.

TAKEN FROM EVANGELISTS

(By United Press.)

Philadelphia, June 16.—"Billy Sunday's most effective sermons were plagiarized."

Bentley D. Ackley, ex-secretary to the baseball evangelist, made that statement today when he charged the sermons Sunday delivered in his revivals in this city, Patterson and elsewhere were almost exact counterparts of those delivered by Evangelist Sam Jones, Talmadge and Gipsy Smith.

Ackley alleged that Sunday's sermon, "New Birth," which seldom failed to reap a harvest of "saydust trail hitters" was preached several years ago by Gipsy Smith. He said he himself took the sermon in shorthand when Smith delivered it at Winona Lake, Ind.

The former secretary also alleges Sunday's sermon on "The Ten Commandments" was taken from the writings of Evangelist Talmadge and that "Come Home to Roost" was first delivered by Sam Jones.

TODAY'S ODDEST STORY.

(By United Press.)

Joplin, Mo., June 16.—Wm. Miller, 101 years old who wanted to marry for the third time asked a local minister to get him a license to wed. The minister pulled a form from his desk and started to write.

"And the er-er young lady's name is?" he asked.

Miller didn't know his bride-to-be other than she was "that widow woman who keeps house for me."

He returned home to ask his intended her name.

HOOSIER HISTORY

Indiana has supplied a number of the first rank cartoonists and newspaper artists. The best known are John T. McClatchey, Kin Hubbard and W. H. Gallaway, who along with Fred C. Yohn, has done illustrating in the best magazines of the country. The younger artists are attracting favorable attention, Wayman Adams by his portraits; Clifton A. Wheeler by his instruction and landscapes; Anderson by his attractive local sketches; and Gustave Baumann by his wooden block prints, an unusual kind of work in this locality.
